Christmas Eve

If you're staying with us for two nights, your Christmas celebration begins today!

Arrive from 3pm and settle into your cosy home for Christmas. Take time to explore or simply relax before the festivities begin.

As evening falls, join us for a glass of fizz in The Polo Bar, followed by a delicious dinner in Fork restaurant. Afterwards, sit back and enjoy live music in the bar, soaking up the festive atmosphere.

Before bedtime, don't forget to stop by reception – the little ones can collect their carrots and mince pies for Santa's midnight visit!

Christmas Day

Start your Christmas morning with stockings full of surprises and a hearty breakfast in Fork restaurant.

If you're arriving today for a one-night stay, join us just in time for a festive lunch filled with Christmas cheer. Raise a glass of Ridgeview English sparkling wine before sitting down to a feast with all the trimmings – a true Christmas celebration.

Afterwards, stretch your legs with a wander through our beautiful grounds or enjoy some friendly competition in our games room. Little ones can join a treasure hunt or get creative with gingerbread house decorating. Unwind in The Polo Bar with a live pianist in the afternoon, soaking up the seasonal spirit.

Come the evening, help yourself to a light buffet in Fork restaurant before settling in for a festive film screening – popcorn included!

Boxing Day

Start your day with a delicious breakfast to round off your stay, then it's time to say goodbye to Royal Berkshire, filled with wonderful memories and Christmas cheer.

Check out is at 11am, but we'll be here, ready to welcome you back for more celebrations in the future. Until next time.

P.S. Don't forget we've got plenty of stunning locations right on our doorstep – the perfect Boxing Day walk with loved ones before you depart each other. Just moments from our door, Virginia Water and Windsor Great Park offer some of the most scenic walks in the south of England.
